JOURNAL OF THE FRANKLIN INSTITUTE.

Vol. CLIV.—July-December, 1902.

INDEX.

Abrasions, artificial 90
Addressograph, the. (Dorsey) 79
Agriculture in its relations to bacteria and other ferments. (Wiley) . 81, 161
Alloys, binary, upon the structure of metals and. (Campbell) . 1, 131, 201
Aluminum as a substitute for copper 223
metallurgy of 106
American Electrochemical Society 240
Anthracite of the Third Hill Mountain, W. Va. (Griffith) 431
Arc-lamp carbide electrodes 142
Artificial indigo, the industrial development of. (Matthews) 423

Bacteria, agriculture in its relations to. (Wiley) 81, 161
Beaumont oil-field. (Hill) 143, 225, 263
Binocular microscope, an improved. (Ives) 441
Book Notices:
Textbook of physiological and pathological chemistry (Bunge-Sterling), Alternating-current machines (Sheldon-Mason), Standard polyphose apparatus and systems (Oudin), 159; Electrical and magnetic calculations (Atkinson), Electrical measurements (Wormells), Histoire de l'Observatoire de Paris (Wolf), Quelques reflexions sur le mécanique (Picard), Die Beobachtungsfehler, etc. (Koll), 160; The chemistry of the terpenes (Heusler), Histoire des mathématiques, etc. (Zeuthen-Mascart), 315; Die Eis-und kälteerzeugungs Machinen (Stetefeld), armature windings, etc. (Arnold); Electric power transmission (Bell), 316; La mécanique rationelle (de Freycenet), Die elektrolyse des wassers (Engelhardt), 395; Die normal elemente (Jaeger), A travers la matière et l'énergie (Blaise), 396; Morainen kunde (v. Böhm), 479; Am. rifleman's encyclopedia (Gould), 480; Elektrolylische darstellung chemischer präparate (Ellis), 480; Photo-engraving (Jenkins) 480
Bradbury, R. H. A review of some recent literature of the periodic law 283
Bread-making, Sharpless' method of. (Chambers) 397
Bridge, moving a, etc. 106

Campbell, Wm., upon the structure of metals and binary alloys, 1, 131, 201
Canby, R. C. The metric system 394

Canyons and sierras of the great Southwest. (Hill–Carter) 238
Carbohydrates, the analytical methods for. (Krug) 349, 401
Carter, Oscar C. S. Death Valley 193
Census reports on the metallurgical industries 78
Chambers, Cyrus, Jr. The Sharpless system of bread-making 397
Charpy–Grenet. Equilibrium of iron-carbon systems. (Translated by A. E. Outerbridge) 91
Coal, American, in Germany 16
production in the United States in 1901 191

Dam across the Nile at Assouan 230
Dangers from electric railway appliances 281
Death Valley. (Carter) 193
Dorsey, E. D. The addressograph 79

Electric furnace products 158
Electric lamp, a new incandescent 282
Electric furnace products 199
Electrochemical industry in France 45 industries of Germany 31
Electrochemistry, recent progress in 261
Electrodes, arc-lamp carbide 142
Electrometallurgical process, Stassano's 422

FitzGerald. The conversion of amorphous carbon to graphite 321
FRANKLIN INSTITUTE:
Amendments to the by-laws 317
Board of Managers, election of Edwin S. Balch to the 397
Correspondence. The metric system. (Canby) 394
Committee on Science and the Arts:
Reports:
Trewhell's theory of electricity, 79; Ives' photomicrographic device, Roussell's cipher-code system, Otis Elevator Company's electric elevator, 80; Doble's tangential water-wheel, 397; Pennell's siphon condenser, Evans' screw-cutting engine lathe, 398; Reagan's improved grate, Gerdtzen's improved roll for crushing, etc., Blount's door-check, Leonard's system of control for electric motors, 399; Morrell's models for stereometric representation, Schellenbach's system of gearing, Steeringer's improvements in electric illumination 481, 482
Proceedings of Stated Meetings 317, 397, 481 sections 400

Gas-engine of the future. (Thurston) 422
Gas-pipes, to prevent the freezing of 348
Gases of the atmosphere. (Keller) 47
Graphite, the conversion of amorphous carbon to. (FitzGerald) 321
Grenet, L. (see Charpy) . . . . . .
Griffith, Wm. The anthracite of the Third Hill Mountain, W. Va. . . . 431

Hatt, William K. Notes on some experiments with a new form of pressure regulator 101
Hill, Robt. T. Canyons and sierras of the great Southwest 238
The Beaumont oil-field, etc. 143, 225, 263

Indigo, artificial, the industrial development of. (Matthews) 423
Iron-carbon systems, equilibrium of. (Charpy-Grenet) 91

Japanese merchant marine, growth of the 158
Job, Robert. Steel rails; relation between structure and durability 17, 121
Jules, F. E. A method of measuring objects in the microscope 73
A new device for stereoscopic photomicrophotography 391
Improved binocular microscope 441

Keller, H. F. The gases of the atmosphere 47
Krug, Wm. H. The analytic methods for carbohydrates, etc. . . . 349, 401

Liquid fuel for steamships 390
Locomotives, American, in Germany 16

Matthews, J. Merritt. The industrial development of 423
Viscose and its application 79
Measuring objects in the microscope, a method of. (Ives) 73
Metallurgical industries, the census figures for the 77
Metals and binary alloys, upon the structure of. (Campbell) 1, 131 precious, artificial production of 130
Metric system of weights and measures 47, 107, 394, 440
Mica springs 32
Microscope, a method of measuring objects in. (Ives) 73
an improved binocular. (Ives) 441
Molding process, a new 446
Mushroom, food value of the 281

Nile Valley, dam for impounding the flood-waters of 230

Oil-fields, the Beaumont, etc. (Hill) 143, 225, 263
Outerbridge, A. E. Equilibrium of iron-carbon systems. (Charpy-Grenet) 91
Overhead wires, danger to from sleet storms 46

Paraffins, formation of natural 100
Periodic law, a review of some recent literature of the. (Bradbury) . . 283
Petroleum deposits in Mexico 129
Petroleum, use of in making pig-iron 445
Photomicrography, stereoscopic, a new device for. (Ives) 391
Pig-iron, making with petroleum 445
Pineapple, virtues of the 262
Popular errors in meteorology 192
Pressure regulator, notes on a new form of. (Hatt) 101

Railroads of the world 100
Railways, higher speeds on 32
Rossi, Auguste J. The metallurgy of titanium 241

Series-vapor engines, etc. (Thurston) 291, 367, 427
Sleet storms, damage to overhead wires from 46
Snow, melting by steam 170
"Soo," extraordinary development at the 77
Stassano electrometallurgical process 422
Steel rails, relation between structure and durability. (Job) 17, 121
Structure of metals and binory alloys. (Campbell) 1, 131, 201
Sulphuric acid by electrolysis 439
Sulphuric acid, manufacture of by contact process 157

Technical high-school of Berlin, etc. 16
Thin films by electrolysis, an improved apparatus for 170
Thurston, R. H. The "series-vapor" and "heat waste" engines as supplementary to single vapor engines 291, 367, 447
Gas-engine of the future 422
Titanium, the metallurgy of. (Rossi) 241
Tunnel between Scotland and Ireland 57
Turquoises from ruins 170

Viscose and its applications. (Matthews) 79

Wiley, H. W. Agriculture in its relations to bacteria and other ferments 81, 161

Zinc, electro-deposition of 31
